(a) the company/organisation with the name “Provider Ltd” and the distinctive title “PROVIDER”, incorporated in England and Wales, and having its registered address at 1 Provider Way, London, UK, with VAT No. GB123456789, as legally represented at the time of signing of this Agreement by the Data Protection Officer, upcast_miao, hereinafter referred to, for the sake of brevity, as “Data Provider” or “Party A”; and

(b) the company/organisation with the name “Consumer GmbH” and the distinctive title “CONSUMER”, incorporated in Germany, and having its registered address at 2 Verbraucherplatz, Berlin, DE, with VAT No. DE999999999, as legally represented at the time of signing of this Agreement by the Head of Data, upcast_david, hereinafter referred to, for the sake of brevity, as “Data Consumer” or “Party B”, each hereinafter referred to as the “Party” and jointly both of the above the “Parties”, the following have been agreed and mutually accepted:

1. SCOPE OF APPLICATION.

1.1. The Parties have entered into this Data Sharing Agreement to provide for the sharing of Data for the Permitted Purpose(s) (as defined below) and to ensure that there are appropriate provisions and arrangements in place to properly safeguard the information shared between the Parties. This Agreement and its Appendices (hereinafter the "Agreement") set out the obligations of the Parties in relation to the sharing of data, including the obligations of the Parties' employees or any sub-processors of data.

1.2. The Parties seek to implement a data sharing agreement that complies with the requirements of the current data protection legal framework (e.g. the GDPR). Therefore, this Agreement shall also apply to any processing of personal data carried out pursuant to the current data protection legislation, on the basis of the contractual relationship between the Parties.

1.3. This Agreement was generated using the UPCAST Negotiation Software (<https://dips.soton.ac.uk/negotiation-plugin>) under Negotiation ID 68878520a62982a292b58241.

distribution action by providing certification or proof upon request.

8.2. Data Protection

- Party B in duty bound to Party A to perform the distribution action on the economic indicators dataset, specifically for the purpose of counterterrorism. Party B shall confirm execution of the distribution action by providing certification or proof upon request.

9. DATA PROTECTION.

9.1. The Parties may each process Personal Data under this Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that the factual arrangement between them dictates the classification of each Party in respect of the Data Protection Legislation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties anticipate that each Party shall act as a Controller in its own right. For the avoidance of doubt, the parties are not joint controllers for the purposes of Article 26 of the GDPR.

9.2. Where a Party is acting as a Controller in relation to this Agreement, it shall comply with its obligations under the Data Protection Legislation.

9.3. Where the Data Provider collects Personal Data which subsequently sells to the Data Consumer, Data Provider shall:

- i. Ensure that it is not subject to any prohibition or restriction which would prevent or restrict it from disclosing or transferring the Personal Data to the Data Consumer, as required under this Agreement; or prevent or restrict the Data Consumer from processing the Personal Data as envisaged under this Agreement;
- ii. Ensure that all fair processing notices have been given (and/or, as applicable, valid consents obtained that have not been withdrawn) and are sufficient in scope and kept up-to-date in order to meet the transparency requirements to enable each Party to process the Personal Data in order to obtain the benefit of its rights, and to fulfil its obligations, under this Agreement in accordance with the Data Protection Legislation. For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties do not warrant to each other that any use of transferred Personal Data outside the scope of this Agreement shall be compliant with the Data Protection Legislation;
- iii. Ensure that the Personal Data is adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary in relation to the Permitted Purpose; and accurate and, where necessary, up to date; having taken every reasonable step to ensure that any inaccurate Personal Data (having regard to the Permitted Purpose), has been erased or rectified; and
- iv. Ensure that the Personal Data is transferred between the Parties by a secure means.

9.4. Each Party shall indemnify and keep the other fully indemnified from and against any and all losses, fines, liabilities, damages, costs, claims, amounts paid in settlement and expenses (including legal fees, disbursements, costs of investigation, litigation, settlement, judgment, interest and penalties) that are sustained or suffered or incurred by, awarded against or agreed to be paid by, the other Party as a result of, or arising from, a breach by each Party of its obligations under this Clause 9 (Data Protection) and/or the Data Protection Legislation, including, in particular, pursuant to:

- i. any monetary penalties or fines levied by any Regulatory Body on the other Party;
- ii. the costs of any investigative, corrective or compensatory action required by any Regulatory Body, or of defending proposed or actual enforcement taken by any Regulatory Body;
- iii. any losses suffered or incurred by, awarded against, or agreed to be paid by the other Party, pursuant to a claim, action or challenge made by a third party against the other Party, (including by a data subject); and
- iv. except to the extent covered by Clause 12, any losses suffered or incurred, awarded against or agreed to be paid by the other Party.

9.5. Nothing in this Agreement will exclude, limit or restrict each Party's liability under the indemnity set out in Clause 12.

10. TECHNICAL AND ORGANISATIONAL SECURITY MEASURES - DATA SHARING MECHANISMS.

10.1. Both Parties shall implement and maintain, from the outset and before accessing the Data, appropriate technical and organisational measures, in accordance with current best practice and the state of the art in the relevant sector of activity, taking into account the implementation costs, and the nature, scope, circumstances and purpose of the processing, as well as the different probability of occurrence and the severity of the risk of the rights and freedoms of the persons concerned, in order to protect the Data being processed against accidental or unlawful destruction or accidental loss (including erasure), alteration (including destruction), modification, unauthorised disclosure, use or access and any other unlawful form of processing. Such measures will include, but shall not be limited to the pseudonymisation and encryption of Data, where appropriate; the ability to ensure the ongoing confidentiality, integrity, availability and resilience of processing systems and services on an ongoing basis; the ability to restore the availability and access to the Data in a timely manner in the event of a physical or technical incident, including a Data Breach; a process for regularly testing, assessing and evaluating the effectiveness of the technical and organisational measures in order to ensure the security of the processing of Data.

10.2. In assessing the appropriate level of security, both Parties shall take account in particular of the risks that are presented by processing, in particular from a Personal Data Breach (as defined under GDPR).

10.3. Both Parties agree to implement and maintain data-sharing mechanisms that: (a) comply with all applicable laws and regulations; (b) ensure the confidentiality and integrity of data during transmission; and (c) guarantee that each Party receives access to the Data as specified in this Agreement.

10.4. Data sharing pursuant to this Agreement shall be conducted exclusively through secure communication channels.

10.5. All data transfers must be encrypted during transmission and comprehensively logged.

11. CONFIDENTIALITY.

11.1. Data Consumer agrees to treat all Data shared under this Agreement as confidential.

11.2. Unless otherwise agreed, each Party shall maintain absolute confidentiality with respect to this Agreement, its activities and any information and documentation relating to the other Party (or anyone on its behalf) of which it becomes aware as a result of its cooperation with the other Party.

11.3. The confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations set forth herein shall remain indefinitely, also following the termination and/or expiration of this Agreement and the cooperation of the Parties.

12. LIABILITY.

Each Party shall be fully liable to the other for any act and/or omission by itself and/or any of its employees, agents or assistants and/or any of its subcontractors. The defaulting Party is obliged to compensate its counterparty for any positive and/or consequential damage and/or moral damage that it or a third party (natural or legal person), to which the defaulting party is liable, may suffer from a breach of the obligations arising hereunder by it (i.e. the defaulting party), its employees, agents, assistants and/or any subcontractors.

13. DURATION AND TERMINATION OF THE AGREEMENT.

13.1. Either Party may terminate this Agreement for any significant reason by providing the other Party with thirty (30) days' prior written notice. For the purposes of this Agreement, a "significant reason" shall include, but is not limited to: (a) a change in applicable laws, regulations, or data protection requirements that makes data sharing unlawful or unduly burdensome; (b) reasonable concerns regarding the security, integrity, or misuse of shared data by the Data Consumer; (c) Reputational risk or public concern arising from the data sharing relationship; (d) a corporate transaction (such as a merger, acquisition, or divestiture) that materially affects the basis for this Agreement; and (e) a breakdown in the collaborative relationship that materially impairs the ability of the Parties to perform their obligations in good faith. The terminating Party shall act reasonably and in good faith when invoking a significant reason for termination.

13.2. A breach of any term hereof shall be deemed a material breach of this Agreement.

13.3. Upon termination of this Agreement for any reason:

(a) Cessation of Data Sharing: Data Consumer shall immediately cease all operations related to the data being processed under this Agreement.

(b) Return or Destruction of Shared Data: Data Consumer shall, within thirty (30) days of termination and in accordance with the instructions of the Data Provider, return or permanently and securely delete all data received from the Data Provider, unless retention is required to comply with applicable laws, regulations, or contractual obligations.

(c) Confirmation of Destruction: Upon request, the Data Consumer shall provide written confirmation that all shared data has been destroyed in accordance with this clause.

13.4. It is expressly agreed that the obligations assumed by the Parties under this Agreement shall survive the termination or any other cancellation of this Agreement.

14. CONTACT.

14.1. With respect to any matter relating to this Agreement, the Parties shall communicate with each other through the contact persons, addresses, emails and telephone numbers listed in Appendix A2 of this Agreement.

14.2. In the event of a change in the contact details, each Party shall inform the other Party in writing and without delay of the change.

14.3. Any statement or notice sent between the Parties via email, as addressed, shall become effective upon receipt by the recipient. Any notice or communication sent by email shall be deemed received on the next business day following transmission (to the addresses indicated below), provided that no delivery failure notification is received by the sender.

14.4. Notices made by post are deemed to have been delivered within seventy two (72) hours upon being sent, and if delivered by courier- on the date of the actual receipt signed by a representative of the recipient.

15. OTHER PROVISIONS.

15.1. If any term of this Agreement is declared invalid or unenforceable for any reason or cause, the validity of this Agreement shall not be affected, and the remaining terms shall remain in effect as if the invalid or unenforceable term had not been included herein.

15.2. This Agreement may be amended only by new written agreement between the Parties.

15.3. The Parties acknowledge that in the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and other prior agreements governing the processing of data, the provisions herein shall prevail.

15.4. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and the Appendices, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail.

16. DISPUTE RESOLUTION.

The Parties shall endeavour in good faith to resolve amicably any dispute and/or difference arising out of the Agreement and/or the Appendices thereto, which form an undivided and integral part thereof. In the event of failure to resolve any dispute / difference amicably, the courts of the country in which the Data Provider is located shall be exclusively responsible for its resolution.

17. GOVERNING LAW AND JURISDICTION.

- 17.1. This Agreement and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with it shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the country in which the Data Provider is located.
- 17.2. Each Party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the country in which the Data Provider is located over any claim or matter arising under, or in connection with, this Agreement.

18. SIGNATURES.
